COURSE LOCATION

Courses are held at multiple locations throughout the year. Students will receive a pre-course email approximately 10-14 days prior to the course start date with the course location, map, and detailed driving directions.

LODGING

There are many, many lodging options in and around Flagstaff and Prescott. Both cities are surrounded by national forest, and camping is available in various campgrounds. For more information on campgrounds as well as ‘dispersed camping’, please visit the Coconino National Forest website for Flagstaff courses and the Prescott National Forest website for Prescott courses.

As the gateway to the Grand Canyon, Flagstaff also has many options for hotels and Airbnb’s. Please visit the Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce website for popular lodging options.

As Arizona’s first territorial capital, historic Prescott also has lots of lodging options. Please visit the Prescott Chamber of Commerce website for more information.

RECREATION

Only 80 miles from the Grand Canyon, Flagstaff has long been recognized for its outstanding recreational opportunities. Rock & Ice, a climbing magazine, named Flagstaff one of the "10 Climbing Towns to Live For", and Flagstaff is surrounded by hundreds of miles of trails for running and mountain biking. The Arizona Nordic Village and Arizona Snowbowl provide cross-country and downhill skiing opportunities during the winter. Flagstaff also boasts a vibrant arts and entertainment scene and lots of great coffee shops. Bring your climbing shoes, hiking boots, running shoes, mountain bike, skis, and snowshoes – the recreational opportunities are amazing!

Similarly, Prescott has many outdoor recreation opportunities including mountain biking and hiking on the extensive trail system in Prescott National Forest, and climbing on Granite Mountain, Thumb Butte, the Dells, and elsewhere. Prescott also has multiple lakes within 20 minutes of town and a vibrant downtown centered on Whiskey Row.

REGISTRATION
